

Mark Tomei is a Senior Vice President - Investments, Financial Advisor, with Wells Fargo Advisors. He is a graduate of State University of New York at Buffalo, from which he earned his degree in Business Administration. Mark holds the following accreditations: (1) a Series 7 registration as a general securities registered representative under the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA); (2) a Series 63 registration (Uniform Securities Agent State Law); (3) a Series 65 registration (Uniform Investment Advisor Representative); and (4) a license as agent for Life and Health Insurance from the State of California; License #0A03916.

Mark has been a financial advisor and stockbroker since 1982 and has worked in the corporate finance and securities industry since 1979. Mark has provided the Alameda County Deferred Compensation Plan participant level education services since 1982.

Wells Fargo Advisors and its financial advisors provide non-fiduciary services only. They do not provide investment advice [as defined under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 as amended ("ERISA")], have any discretionary authority with respect to the plan, make any investment or other decisions on behalf of the plan, or otherwise take any action that would make them fiduciaries to the plan under ERISA. Wells Fargo Advisors is a trade name used by Wells Fargo Clearing Services, LLC, member SIPC.

